Eighty Dollars Reward.

RAN-AWAY from the Subscriber, at Newtown, Chester Ferry, Queen Anne's county, state of Maryland, the following negroes, viz. a woman named Nanny, went away on the 23d January, 1799, and took with her a Mulatto female child, about two years old, named Arianna. Nanny is a dark yellow negro, about five feet four or five inches high, remarkably handsome for a negro. Her cloathing unknown as she took a variety of good cloaths with her—she went off with a negro fellow, named Peter, and calls himself Peter Simpson, he is the property of a certain William Bowers of Talbot county, state as above, who has advertised one hundred dollars reward for him. Peter is a stout well made yellow fellow, about 6 feet one inch high, is a tolerable good Carpenter. Nanny passes for his wife, but her real husband is named Bob, who belongs to her master. It is probable they are in the neighbourhood of Salem in the Jersies, as they were there in October last, and by information, Peter had built himself an house to live in, between Rum Bridge and Gold Town; it is likely they may have changed their names and may have passes, as Peter can write a middling hand; it is probable Nanny has another child, as it was thought she was in a pregnant state when she went away.

The noted Ferry man Charles, who calls himself Charles Rodney; he went off on the 18th of February last, he is a dark mulatto, about five feet eight or nine inches high, about forty years old, stoops in his shoulders when he walks, a scar on his head very perceivable—he took with him a small bay mare about 4 or 5 years years old, her mane trimmed and bob tail'd; his cloathing unknown, as he carried off a variety of cloaths; it is probable he has changed his name, as he is a very artful, sensible fellow, he can read tolerably well; it is likely he may hire himself to drive a wrggon, being well acquainted with that business, driving for the army during the war; he also perhaps may have a pass.

The above reward will be given for the aforesaid two negroes, viz. Nanny and Charles, if taken out of the state, or twenty dollars for Nanny and child, if taken in this state, & 20 do. Charles if taken in this state and secured in jail, so as I may get them again. If brought home all reasonable charges shall be paid by me.

JOHN QUIMBY.

Twenty Dollars Reward.

RAN-AWAY from Spring Forge, in York County, a negro man, named ISAAC, otherwise CUDJO, about 21 years old, the property of Robert Coleman, Esq. He is about 5 feet 8 inches high, has a blemish in his eyes, more white in them than common, by trade a Ferge man; had on and took with him a drab coloured broad cloth coat, almost new, a sailors jacket and pantaloons printed fancy cord, a swansdown striped under jacket; a rorum hat; one fine and one coarse shirt one muslin handkerchief, sprigged, two ditto striped border. a blue Persian under jacket and two pair cotton stockings. Whoever takes up said negro and lodges him in any jail in this or any of the neigbouring states shall have the above reward or reasonable expences if brought home.

JOHN BRIEN.

Spring Forge, October 23, 1799.

N. B. As said negro formarly lived in Chester county, it is probable he may return there.

The Year 1800 is arrived!

UNION TAVERN,

In George-Town, upon the Potomak, is

FOR SALE,

Upon the premises, on the first Monday in May next

THIS Tavern was built by the subscription of a number of gentlemen as a necessary and useful improvement to the town—It cost 16000 dollars in the year 1799 when materials and workmanship were much cheaper than at this time. The terms of subscription were that it should be sold to the highest bidder on the day above mentioned.

It is a handsome, substantial brick building, of three stories, fronting sixty feet on the most public street in the town, and running back sixty three feet upon a wide and convenient street—The house is admirably calculated for a tavern. It contains upon the first floor four large rooms, one of them 30 by 20 feet and another 23 by 20, besides a large bar and dressing room, upon the second floor is an elegant assembly room, 60 by 30 feet, and three convenient lodging rooms. Upon the third floor are ten excellent lodging rooms—the garrat admits of a division of ten more. There is also a good kitchen and commodious cellars sufficient for such a house. Passages and cross passages intersect the house in such a manner as to make each room private.

There are stables sufficient for the accommodation of fifty horses, with convenient sheds for carriages—attached to the building are three lots of 60 feet by 120 each, which front on three streets, and in the back yard and not 20 yards from the kitchen is a copious and never failing spring of most excellent running water.

The nature of improvements and their convenience to the city of Washington must render this property a most desirable acquisition to any person who may wish to carry on a tavern upon an extensive scale. The immediate removal of the government of the United States must receive to it full and complete custom.

The terms of sale are, one third in cash—one third in 120 days and the other third in 240 days, to be secured by approved notes negotiable at the Bank of Columbia or at either of the Banks in Baltimore, possession to be given on the day of sale and a perfect title made clear, of all incumbrances, on the last payment being made.

Foreign Intelligence.

VIA ANTIGUA.

LONDON, December 15.

That there is a ſtrongly prevailing diſpoſition in France to make peace with England (and for which perhaps the new Government of that country may be inclined to conform) is evident, from the following paſſage, which we extract verbatim from a very reſpectable French paper:

"It has often been repeated, that the Engliſh Government ſhould be exterminated. This might be well; but it would certainly be much better for us to make Peace with this Government. England has been the ſoul of the Coalition. Could we detach it, the other powers muſt yield to us, for two ſpecial reaſons—1. They would be no longer ſupported by Engliſh gold; and 2dly, Our ports, at preſent deſerted, would immediately be frequented; commerce would then be renewed (proſperity would follow), and our power would encreaſe; whilſt that of our enemies would dwindle to nothing. We ſpeak, however, of an honorable and advantageous peace, as well for the Batavians as ourſelves. Peace on good conditions is preferable to any thing. Vengeance is a mean paſſion; it is unworthy of a great nation; and, in the preſent inſtance, entirely againſt its intereſts."

Another paper holds ſimilar language, recommending the Government to make an honorable Peace with the only power capable of conſolidating the intereſts of France. If ſuch be the diſpoſition of the Government, as well as the people, (and Buonaparte himſelf profeſſes, that ſuperior to all party attachments, he has no obſect in view but their intereſt) much may yet be hoped from the late change that has taken place, provided by this change the government is likely to acquire ſuch a ſolidity and reſponſibility as may guarantee any engagements entered into with foreign nations.

It appears that the Emperor Paul confidently relies on making himſelf maſter of the iſland of Malta. The St. Peterſburgh Court Gazette announces the appointment of Lieutenant-General Benbinder to be Governor of that Iſland.

A beautiful Circaſſian arrived on Sunday at the Turkiſh Ambaſſador's hotel. She was brought from Smyrna in the Princeſſa, Captain William Lee, as a preſent from the Grand Seignior to his Excellency the Ambaſſador. She is peculiarly elegant and beautiful, and was eſcorted hither by ſix black eunuchs. The Ambaſſador ſhewed great attention to captain Lee, on account of the care he had taken of his young miſtreſs.

Though the French have ſworn Hatred to Royalty, it ſeems the oath does not extend to Queens, ſince we ſee that, notwithſtanding their poverty, and their want of means to exterminate Kings, they have expended two hundred thouſand livres on a ſplendid carriage for the Queen of Spain. It muſt, indeed, be acknowledged, that His Moſt Catholic Majeſty has paid very dearly for the foreign ſhip of which this uſeful teſtimony is the firſt fruits!

December 23.

The Dutch Admiral Story is gone to reſide at Croydon on his parole. His excurſion through the neighbouring country is unlimited, but he is not to come within ten miles of the capital.

The Duke of York, as we are aſſured, has convinced a great perſonage that no blame attaches to his royal highneſs, in attempting to carry the plan of the expedition into effect; and that the whole fault reſts with thoſe at home, who had the charge of providing the means for its execution. Whether the expedition in toto, or only the plan is blamed, we have not heard; but the fault is thrown upon Mr. Dundas, either as originating the undertaking, or as the perſon in this country entruſted with carrying the plan into effect. Even Sir Ralph Abercrombie, we are told, has not eſcaped cenſure, ſo compleatly has the Duke of York juſtified himſelf in a certain quarter, where, it is reported, Mr. Dundas has not been graciouſly received. This may explain why Sir Ralph did not come to London to pay his reſpects to his majeſty.

Mr. Dundas, it is ſaid, will retire upon a penſion and a peerage, and that he is gone to Scotland, to ſecure the election in Edinburgh in favour of a friendly ſucceſſor.

December 27.

The Prince of Wales has preſented Mr. Kemble with a gold box, as a token of approbation for his performance of Rolla, in the Play of Pizarro.

Napper Tandy, it is reported, has received notice to prepare for his trial ſometime in the middle of January.

There are at this time no leſs than 796 pendants flying on board Britiſh ſhips of war; and, by a new code of ſignals, numerically arranged, veſſels can now diſtinguiſh each other, on whatever ſtation they may ſail: the ſhore ſignal ports have alſo the ſame code, ſo that they can telegraphically report to the Admiralty the hour on which every King's ſhip paſſes their reſpective ſtations.

January 3.

The garriſon of the fortreſs of Valetta, in the iſland of Malta, according to the report brought by a veſſel arrived at Guernſey from the Mediterranean, has ſigned a capitulation, by which it agrees to ſurrender, if not furniſhed with a ſupply of military ſtores from France in a given time.

We lament to hear that the Poet Laureat makes the nation a party to the idle diſpute about the cloſe of the century: he gives to the New Year's Ode the title of Carmen Seculaie, and he publiſhes a preface in defence of his opinion. The topic was a pregnant ſource of betting in a ſportive argument, and many a jolly dinner has been enjoyed from the controverſy, but it is another matter to pledge the ſenſe of the nation to the joke.

Upon Chriſtmas day the new Conſtitution began to be put in execution; and the Thuilleries, the Palace of ſo many lawful kings, from whence the laſt of them was led by parricides to his dungeon, was aſſigned as the reſidence of the Corſican Sovereign, for whom the Great Nation has murdered the beſt of its kings, and waded for the laſt ſix years through ſeas of tears and blood!

It is remarkable that the day which the regicides have ſelected for the inauguration of their ſyſtem of unqualified deſpotiſm is that ſacred day, from which all European Nations date their eternal hope. Upon that day, they aſſert that their revolution has found an end.

Buonaparte has appointed Fourcroy, the celebrated chemiſt, a member of ſtate, in the department of finance. Probably it is thought, that in the preſent ſcarcity of money Fourcray may be able to raiſe the ſupplies by applying his chemical knowledge towards the multiplication of ſpecie; and that by diſcovering the philoſopher's ſtone, he may produce that gold and ſilver which the economiſts cannot obtain.

The French conſuls are dreſſing for their parts, and it is expected that Buonaparte will prove "every inch a king," as long as the Pariſians can be pleaſed with the novelty of the thing!

The unbounded power of the preſent French Government does not altogether repreſs the ludicrous fancy of the Pariſians. A ſatirical letter is ſaid now to be circulating in that metropolis addreſſed to Citizen, General, Monſieur, Conſul, King, Buonaparte, Member of the National Inſtitute.

It is generally underſtood thnt Sir Ralph Abercrombie has refuſed the offer of a peerage.

The Iriſh Parliament, whoſe meeting is appointed for the 15th inſt. will renew the queſtion of the Union with all the vehemence of party. The pros and cons are equally confident of their ſucceſsful efforts.

The preparations making for a new Expedition of great magnitude, have been before mentioned, reſpecting which we have to add, on the authority of Letters of yeſterday, that orders have been received at Chatham to fit the Inflexible. Trompe, and Veſtal frigates, for the reception of troops on board. A number of other ſhips are preparing at different ports for a ſimilar ſervice.

Among the numerous perfidious and corrupt acts of Buonaparte, during his command in Italy, the following has lately been publiſhed:—

"In June 1796, Buonaparte arrived with his army under the walls of Modena. The Duke unable to oppoſe him, entered into an amicable negotiation, the reſult of which was a ſolemn agreement, that, on the Duke of Modena's paying 600,000 crowns, and allowing a free paſſage for the French army by the ſhort road through the territory of Modena, by Piſtioa, to Leghorn, the city of Modena, and the ſubjects of the Duke, ſhould be ſpared from all further requiſition.

"The money was immediately ſent by the Duke to Buonaparte's head-quarters, in ſilver, which he received, but demurred, on account of its not being ſent in gold, alledging that the agio, (which is the difference in Italy between the value of gold and ſilver), was then near ten per cent. The Duke replied that the currency of Modena was ſilver, and that in his whole territory the amount could not be raiſed in gold. Buonaparte firm to his purpoſe, inſiſted on having the contribution paid in gold. The Duke then agreed to receive back the ſilver, and forward it at his own expence to Leghorn, to get it exchanged.—But no; Buonaparte would keep the ſilver as a ſecurity for the ſafe arrival of the gold; and a very ſhort period was given the Duke to procure it. The enemy was at his gates. The Duke collected the 600,000 crowns and ſent them under an eſcort to Leghorn, and got them exchanged for gold, which was immediately forwarded to Buonaparte's head-quarters, with a requeſt that the original 600,000 crowns might be returned. Buonaparte, however, kept both; and not ſatisfied with this act of perfidy, on the ſame night he entered the city of Modena, demanded an immediate contribution of ſhoes, and every other ſupply for the uſe of the army, on pain of military execution. The venerable Duke of Modena was allowed to make his eſcape by the canal in the Venetian territories, and his departure was made a pretence for plundering his palace, and ruin and deſolation followed."

In the city of Quebeck the price of bread is regulated by the average price of flour for the preceding month; and any baker refuſing to ſupply his cuſtomers with the uſual quantity of bread, who have been regularly ſupplied from him the preceding month, forfeits his recognizance, and becomes liable to a proſecution.

IRISH PARLIAMENT.

HOUSE OF LORDS.

Wedneſday, Jan. 15.

The Lord Lieutenant this day went down to the Houſe of Peers, and opened the Parliament with the following Speech:—

"My Lords and Gentlemen,

"I have received his Majeſty's commands to aſſemble you in Parliament.

"Upon a review of the important and glorious events that have diſtinguiſhed the period which has elapſed ſince I laſt addreſſed you, the moſt gratifying and encouraging reflections preſent themſelves to our conſideration.

"By the brilliant courſe of victories atchieved by the combined Imperial armies, the various kingdoms and ſtates of Italy have been delivered from the ravages and the tyranny of the French.

"The throne of Naples and our friendly connection with that kingdom have been reſtored.

"The French expedition to Egypt has been checked in its career by the exertions of the Turkiſh arms, aſſiſted by a ſmall detachment of his Majeſty's forces, and the gallantry of their heroic commander.

"The hoſtile plans of the common enemy in India have terminated in the total deſtruction of the power which had been miſled by their artifices, and through the timely, vigorous, and deciſive counſels of the Marquis of Welleſley, and the conſummate ſkill and valour of his Majeſty's Generals, Officers and Troops, the Britiſh poſſeſſions in that quarter of the globe have been beneficially extended, and effectually ſecured.

"By the deſcent of his Majeſty's forces, and of his Ruſſian allies on the Coaſt of Holland, the Dutch fleet has been happily reſcued from the power of the enemy: and although the ſeaſon, peculiarly unfavourable to military operations, produced the neceſſity of relinquiſhing an enterprize ſo fortunately begun, and prevented the accompliſhment of his Majeſty's views, yet the reſult of that expedition has been peculiarly beneficial to this kingdom, in removing all fear of attack on our coaſts from a quarter whence it has been ſo often planned, and in enabling his Majeſty's fleets to direct their vigilance excluſively to the ſingle port from which the enemy can attack this country with any hope even of a temporary ſucceſs.

"My utmoſt care has been exerted to carry into execution the extraordinary powers which you have committed to my diſcretion, with vigour, and at the ſame time with moderation. All tendency to inſurrection has been effectually repreſſed; but it gives me true concern to acquaint you, that the painful neceſſity of acting with ſeverity has been too frequently impoſed upon me; and although public tranquility has been in a great meaſure reſtored, yet I have to lament that a diſpoſition to outrage and conſpiracy ſtill continues in ſeveral diſtricts, that much induſtry is uſed to keep alive the ſpirit of diſaffection, and to encourage among the lower claſſes the hopes of French alliance.

"I truſt that the recent revolution in France cannot fail to open the eyes of ſuch of his Majeſty's ſubjects as have been deluded by the artifice which have been unremittingly employed to withdraw them from their allegiance; and that it will reſtore and increaſe the love of conſtitutional order, and of regulated freedom, by demonſtrating that the principles of falſe liberty tend ultimately to deſpotiſm, and that the criminal ſtruggles of democratic faction naturally cloſe in military uſurpation.

"So long as the French government, under whatever form it exerts its influence, ſhall perſevere in ſchemes of deſtruction and projects, of ambition, ſubverſive at once of the liberties of Europe and of the ſecurity of his Majeſty's Dominions, there can be no wiſe alternative but to proſecute the war with increaſing energy. It is by great exertions alone that either their views of aggrandiſement can be fruſtrated, or a ſolid peace procured; his Majeſty has therefore availed himſelf with peculiar ſatisfaction of the cordial and great aſſiſtance which has been afforded him by his faithful Ally the Emperor of Ruſſia, and has thought right to make every exertion for augmenting the diſpoſeable military force of his own dominions. His majeſty therefore has been highly gratified in accepting the ſervices ſo generouſly offered by his Engliſh Militia; and I am to expreſs to you the entire confidence which his majeſty feels, that the zeal and loyalty of his Militia of this kingdom, in forwarding at this important criſis the active operations of the Empire, will not be leſs prompt and conſpicuous.

"The apprehenſion of general ſcarcity which ſome time ſince took place, called for my early attention to this moſt important ſubject; and I was induced, with the advice of the Council, to offer premiums for the early importation of grain. This meaſure will, I flatter myſelf, meet your approbation; and I have full confidence in your wiſdom, if it ſhall be neceſſary to reſort to any further extraordinary means for procuring a ſupply."

"Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

"The evident neceſſity of ſecuring this kingdom from every danger, whether foreign or domeſtic, and of rendering the ſucceſs of invaſion, if attempted, impracticable, will demonſtrate to you the wiſdom of continuing that enlarged ſyſtem of defence you have ſo wiſely adopted.

"I have therefore ordered the public accounts and eſtimates for the enſuing year to be laid before you; and have the fulleſt confidence, that, in the ſupply which ſuch a ſituation ſhall appear to you to require, you will equally conſult the ſafety of the kingdom and the honor of his Majeſty's government.

"I am indueed to hope, that the great increaſe of the revenue, which has taken place in the preſent year, may enable you to raiſe the ſums which may be wanted for the current ſervices, without any diſtreſſing addition to the burthens of the people."

"My Lords and Gentlemen,"

"I recommend to your uſual attention the agriculture, the manufactures, and particularly the linen manufacture of Ireland; and I doubt not, that the Proteſtant charter ſchools, and the public inſtitutions, whether of charity or of education, which have been protected by your liberality, will ſtill receive a judicious encouragement.

"It will be your wiſdom to conſider how far it will be neceſſary to continue any of thoſe extraordinary powers, with which you have ſtrengthened the authority of his Majeſty's government, for the more effectual ſuppreſſion and puniſhment of rebellious conſpiracy and outrage.

"His Majeſty places the moſt entire reliance upon your firmneſs and wiſdom, and he has no doubt but you will anxiouſly purſue ſuch meaſures as ſhall be beſt calculated for bringing the preſent war to an honorable termination and for reſtoring the country to a permanent quality.

It will be my conſtant object to attend to your ſuggeſtions and advice, that I may by this means moſt beneficially accompliſh the commands I have received from his Majeſty and moſt effectually forward the intereſts and happineſs of this kingdom."

LONDON, Jan. 21.

The Lords Commiſſioners of the Admiralty have ordered the beautiful frigate la Bordelaiſe to be commiſſioned at Plymouth, and to carry twenty-eight 32 pounders. This ſhip is conſidered by the ſhip builders to be the moſt beautiful model ever brought into an Engliſh port. She was taken by the Revolutionaire, Capt. Twiſden, about two months ago, then on her ſecond cruize ſince launching, at which time ſhe had taken and deſtroyed 29 Britiſh veſſels, the inſurance on which, at Lloyds, coſt the underwriters two hundred and thirty thouſand pounds. She is completely formed for faſt ſailing, that, though often chaſed by Engliſh men of war, none could come up with her; and her captain and owners often boaſted at Bourdeaux that they ſet the whole of the Britiſh navy at defiance, provided they did not fall in with the Revolutionaire in blowing weather: Fortunately this event took place, and after a chaſe of nine hours, going 13 or 14 knots the whole time, la Bourdelaiſe ſtruck to captain Twiſden. Lord Spencer has given the command of this choice and deſirable frigate, to captain Thomas Manly, who formerly commanded the Charon. La Bourdelaiſe is 680 tons, 159 feet long, and 32 feet 6 inches beam.

Captain Eliab Hervey, is appointed to the Triumph, of 74 guns.

Capt. Edward O Brien, to the Eſſex Sea Fencibles.

Capt. Patterſon, to the Montague of 74, vice Knight ſick.

Capt. H. Hothan, to the Immortalite, of 36, at Plymouth.

January 27.

"The moſt poſitive advices have been received at Vienna and Ratiſbon, that 30,000 Ruſſians, as an Auxiliary Corps, two thirds infantry and one third cavalry, are now marching in three columns towards Bohemia. The Ruſſian army now quartered in Bohemia will be increaſed to 70 000 men. Thus a freſh army of 100,000 Ruſſians will appear in the field early in the ſpring, or perhaps ſooner, if circumſtances ſhould require it.

"The Vienna Court Gazette, of the 28th December contains a letter from Inſpruck, dated in the evening of the 21ſt, which ſtates that all the military of that place had been ordered, by a Courier, to proceed by forced marches to Italy, where the French had collected very ſtrongly at a certain place.

"General Petraſch alſo reported, that the French were in motion, and that it appeared they would march in three columns towards Bregenz, Chur, and Feldkirch, againſt which he was making all neceſſary preparation.

"The Vienna Court Gazette of the 4th inſt. contains an official relation of the occurrences in Italy, down to the 23d December by which it appears that the French, inſtead of having gained ſome advantage, were forced to fly with the utmoſt precipitation to the walls of Genoa, many of their troops, with a chief of Brigade, being taken priſoners.

"The imperial army in Italy is to be completed to 150,000 men, and that of the Archduke it is ſuppoſed will not be leſs than 100,000 men, which together with 700,000 Ruſſians to act on the Rhine, and at leaſt 100,000 armed peaſants, will give full employment to Buonaparte abroad;—whilſt the Chouans, Vendeans and a Freſh continental expedition of Anglo Ruſſians, may equally claim his attention at home.

"Mr. Wickham, the Engliſh envoy has collected a flotilla of forty two ſhips on the Lake of Conſtance, which is to ſavour the operations in Switzerland, and will ſoon be conſiderably augmented.

"The Engliſh fleet which blocks up the harbor of Genoa, is reported to have taken a French flotilla laden with proviſions and ammunition for that city.

"Private letters from Italy ſtate, that one half of the Auſtrian army has entered winter quarters, whilſt the other is to purſue its operations for ſome time, and then be relieved. By this plan the Auſtrians will always appear in the field with renovated ſtrength."

Our Plymouth letter ſtates, on the authority of a paſſenger arrived from Morlaix, that the enemy's fleet at Breſt, conſiſted of forty-eight ſail of the line, fourteen of which were ready for ſea, completely manned, and that they were expected to ſail in a few days on a ſecret expedition, the object of which was ſuppoſed to be Portugal.

ARMY OF THE EAST.

INTERCEPTED CORRESPONDENCE.

From this laſt intercepted correſpondence from Egypt now publiſhed, under the authority of government, we ſhall ſelect ſome paſſages from the letters of Kleber, Pouſſielgue, General Controller of the Expences, General Dugna, and Buonaparte himſelf to develope the character of the Arch-Conſul, and ſhew the miſerable and deſtitute condition in which he left the army of Egypt when he meanly ſtole away from it, ſtealing alſo at the ſame time every ſingle ſous belonging to the military cheſt.

Buonaparte to General Kleber.

"The commiſſioner of the arts ſhall return to France on board a flag of truce, which you will demand for this purpoſe, conformably to the late cartel, ſome time in the month of November, immediately after they have completed the object of their miſſion. They are at preſent engaged in putting a finiſhing hand to it, by an examination of Upper Egypt. Nevertheleſs, if you think that any of them will be of ſervice to you you may put them in requiſition without ſcruple!!!"

"If, by a ſeries of the moſt extraordinary events, none of theſe attempts ſhould ſucceed, and you ſhould neither receive reinforcements, nor intelligence from France by May next; and if this year, in ſpite of all your precautions, the plague ſhould break out in Egypt and carry off more than fifteen hundred of the troops—a conſiderable loſs in addition to that which the events of the war will daily occaſion—I think that you ought not to venture upon another campaign and that you are ſufficiently juſtified in concluding a peace with the Ottoman Porte: even though the evacuation of Egypt ſhould be the leading article. It will merely be neceſſary for you to poſtpone the execution of it (if ſuch a thing be poſſible) till the period of a general peace.

"Endeavor to get together five or ſix hundred Mameloucs, in ſuch a manner, that, when the French fleet arrives, you may be able to lay your hands upon them at the ſame inſtant of time, either at Cairo or in the other provinces, and ſend them off immediately for France. If you cannot procure Mameloucs, ſuch Arabs hoſtages, Cheiks el Belad as may then be in cuſtody, no matter on what account, will anſwer the end as well. Theſe people, landed in France, and detained there for a year or two, will contemplate the grandeur of the Nation; they will acquire, in ſome degree, our manners and our language, and when they return to Egypt, will prove to us ſo many partiſans.

"The army I entruſt to your care is entirely compoſed of my own children. I have never ceaſed, even in the midſt of their moſt trying difficulties and dangers, to receive proofs of their attachment; endeavor to preſerve them ſtill in thoſe ſentiments for me. This is due to the particular eſteem and friendſhip I entertain for you, and to the unfeigned affection I feel for them!

VIENNA, December 13.

The Auſtrian Gazettes announce that the Ruſſian army aſſembled anew in Lithuania, will traverſe Gallicia in eight columns, where they will repair directly to Auſtria, Moravia, and Bohemia, where they will take their winter quarters, and join the army of General Suwarrow. According to the ſame accounts, the firſt column of theſe reinforcements has already paſſed the Viſtula, and directs its courſe to Lindſburg. Preparations are making in the neighborhood of Vienna to receive 15,000 Ruſſians, who are to arrive towards the end of January. The Pragus Gazette ſtates, that General Suwarrow, the Archduke Charles and General Melas are immediately to to repair to Vienna, in order to concert a general plan for the approaching campaign. In the mean time the Aulic Council of war has ordered to preſs, with freſh activity, the levies in all the hereditary ſtates.

PARIS, January 30.

Official diſpatches, from General Kleber, dated Cairo, 25 Brumaire (November 16), ſtate, that on 10th Brumaire (November 1), at break of day about four thouſand Turks landed at Damietta, and immediately endeavoured to intrench themſelves in a place between the right bank of the Nile, the ſea, and the late Menzaleh. General Verdier, who was encamped between Leſbeh, being informed of this deſcent, marched to attack them, put to the ſword 3000 and took about 800 priſoners. General Verdier took from the enemy 32 ſtandards, one 24 pounder, and four field pieces with their ammunition. This landing was effected under Sir Sidney Smith, who commanded the fleet. On the 18th the fleet was forced to ſea by tempeſtuous weather, and had not again appeared when Kleber's diſpatches were ſent off. Some veſſels, however, were ſtill cruizing off Alexandria, among which was the Theſeus.

Buonaparte, firſt Conſul of the Republic, to the Burgomaſters and Senate of the free and Imperial City of Hamburgh.

Paris, 2 Nivoſe, 8 year, Dec. 39, 1799.

SIRS,

We have received your letter; it does not juſtify your conduct.

Courage and virtue preſerve States; cowardice and vice deſtroy them.

You have violated the laws of hoſpitality.—Such an event could not have happened among the moſt barbarous hordes of the deſart. Your fellow citizens muſt forever reproach you.

The two unfortunate men whom you have delivered up will die illuſtrious; but their blood ſhall work more evil on the heads of their perſecutors than a whole army could have done.

The Secretary State.

A NEW ADVERTISEMENT.

To Merchants, Store-keepers and Tradesmen in general, &c.

GENTLEMEN,

I FEEL peculiar pleasure in stating, that you have so generously and generally come forward and subscribed for my work, that (notwithstanding all provisoes heretofore made by me) the coins and monies of account of the principal maritime trading places in Russia, Sweden, Denmark, Norway, Prussia, Poland, Germany, Holland, Flanders, Spain, Portugal, Italy, in several of the windward and leeward West India Islands, and many ports in the East Indies—the whole to be reduced to dollars and cents; and the best mode of computing the exchange with those places explained; also, a large sheet table of calculations at compound interest at 6 per cent. the tables used in banks for the determination of the value of gold; the interest of each month from one to twelve months, on every dollar (without exception) from one to two thousand; and a table of all the post towns in the United States; besides much other general useful information, shall positively be added to the work, entitled

ROWLETT'S,

Tables of Discount or Interest,

On every dollar (without exception)

From one to two thousand; thence on every ten, fifty, and five hundred, to five thousand, from one day to sixty four days inclusive, at six per cent. with rates for 5, 7 and 8 per cent, &c. &c. &c.

The work is dedicated, by permission, to the President and Director of the Bank of North America, and received in the first twelve days the patronage of JOHN ADAMS, President of the United States; of THOMAS JEFFERSON, Vice President of the United States and President of the Senate; of two-thirds of the Senators and Members of the House of Representatives of the United States; and of the Presidents and Directors of the different Banks unanimously, &c.—a list of the whole is printed and attached to the proposals.

It is evident that the work will be no trumpery catch-penny-thing; for I do assure the public, that the price of it is reduced very near one-half, according to the usual rate at which books sell; and it is my full determination to render it, in point of SUBJECT MATTER, a valuable acquisition.

With respect to the accuracy of the Tables, too much cannot be said, and I pledge myself that a PREMIUM of not less than ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS shall be offered to the first person who shall inform me of a single error of one cent, according to the principle acted upon.

To do away all doubts with respect to the expences of the undertaking, I do most solemnly declare that they will amount to very near FOUR THOUSAND DOLLARS, and perhaps more, independent of any remuneration for my own trouble in the arduous business, and the great expence already incurred for specimens, proposals, advertisements, hand-bills, &c. &c.

I do therefore trust with confidence, that gentlemen will continue to come forward with that public spirit and generosity which characterize the nation, and support the work by subscribing to it without hesitation: otherwise it cannot be published, and I must sit down to reflect upon a CONSIDERABLE LOSS.

And am, with profound respect,
Gentlemen,
Your obedient humble servant,
JOHN ROWLETT,
Accomptant, Bank North America.

Postscript.—Gentlemen are respectfully invited to see Specimens of the Tables, &c. exhibited at the City-tavern, Hardy's Hotel, Francis's Hotel, the Indian Queen, Dudgeon's tavern, the Franklin Head and at the George; and please be referred to the other advertisements which appear every day in some one of the newspapers.

Subscribers are to pay nothing until the book is delivered rigorously conformable to all stipulations.

Copy right secured according to act of Congress.

A well grounded conviction of the expediency of the foregoing plan, has been our principal inducement to undertake it. When it is considered that this populous and flourishing Metropolis contains only one Public Institution on an extensive plan, and that many of our youth are obliged to resort to other States, to receive even a Grammar-School Education, the Seminary now proposed, will, we trust, be regarded as eminently useful.

Actuated by these considerations, many gentlemen, friends to Science, and to Literary Establishments, have urged, with great warmth, the present undertaking, and excited the most flattering expectations of its success.

Thus encouraged by the countenance and promised aid of liberal men, no less than by a firm persuasion that well-regulated Academies have a most important influence upon manners, habits, and principles; it will be our earnest endeavor so to conduct this Seminary of Learning, as to subserve the great Interests of Religion and Morality, to promote Decorum of Behaviour-Correctness of Taste, Liberality of Sentiment, and every other attribute of an ingenuous mind, which, in connection with good principles, and sound literature, constitute the distinguished ornaments of the gentleman, and the scholar.

The building, engaged for this Academy, though affording excellent accommodation, will be relinquished for a more central situation, if such a change should be found necessary.

A master of distinguished abilities will be procured to conduct the Mathematical Department.

Persons desirous to be employed as TUTORS in this Seminary, are requested to apply, without delay, to either of the subscribers, to whom also Parents wishing to send their children, will please to make application.

CONGRESS.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

TUESDAY, April 1.

Mr. S. Smith brought in a bill to incorporate a company, by the name and stile of the Mine and Metal—which was read a first and second time, and committed for Friday next.

Mr. Griswould, from the committee of revisal and unfinished business, reported sundry resolutions, recommending the further continuance of the following acts, which will expire with the present session, viz.

An act in addition to the act for the punishment of certain crimes against the United States.

An act to prescribe the mode of taking evidence in cases of contested elections for members of the House of Representative, and to compel the attendance of witnesses.

An act to authorise the defence of merchant vessels of the United States against French depredations.

In this report the House concurred.

Mr. G. also reported, that it would be advisable further to suspend the operation of the following acts, viz.

An act laying an additional duty on salt imported into the United States, and for other purposes; and

An act further to suspend the duties on the manufacture of snuff within the United States and of drawback on the exportation thereof.

The consideration of the question on the act laying a duty on salt was postponed till to-morrow, and committed to a committee of the whole House. The second resolution was agreed to.

The House again resolved itself into a committee of the whole on the bill to amend the act providing for the sale of the lands of the United States in the territory N. W. of the Ohio, and above the mouth of Kentuckey river; when Mr. Griswold's motion to strike out the first section being under consideration, Messrs. Harrison and J. Brown spoke against it, and Mr. Cooper in favor of it. The motion was at length negatived.

Mr. Harper then moved an amendment, providing that no money should be paid for surveying the lands, until sufficient had been received in the treasury from the sales authorised by the act; which was opposed by Messrs. Griswold and Jackson, as derogatory to the dignity of the government, and was negatived.

Mr. J. Brown then moved to amend the bill by striking out the words "half section" and inserting "quarter sections," so as to have the land surveyed into lots of 160 instead of 320 acres, which was also negatived.

Mr. Claiborne, after having stated to the committed the policy and necessity of granting some indulgence to the intruders on the public lands, moved the following amendment: viz, Provived, however, that every head of a family who shall have made an actual settlement or improvement on any part of the lands aforesaid, and shall reside on the same, shall have the right of pre-emption to the half-section on which he resides, at the rate of dollars per acre. After some observations from Messrs. Gallatin, Jackson and Kittera, against the motion, it was negatived, there being only 17 ayes.

After making sundry amendments, the committee rose, and the bill was ordered to be engrossed for a third reading to-morrow.

Left there the following American vessels:—Ship Louisa, Dale, Baltimore; ship India, Ashmead, Philadelpnia; ship Criterion, Weeks, do.

Captain Trevitt has politely furnished us with the gazettes of that city as late as November 20. They are mostly occupied with a series of interesting documents found in the palace of the late Tippoo Sultaun.—The Asiatic Mirror contains the proclamation of the governor of the Isle of France, wherein he says "we require the tribunals to pronounce the confiscation of all the American vessels which have been or shall be brought into this port, as well as the propriety with which they are to be laden."—Another paper contains a letter from Pondicherry, from which the following are extracted:—"An American prize was captured in the Straights of Sunda, by a small French privateer with 30 men. She boarded the American, and after fighting three quarters of an hour on his deck she was taken. The American had five men killed, and the French three, besides a great many wounded on both sides. The American had a commission from his government."

MAP OF NEW-JERSEY.

THE commissioners appointed for the purpose of circulating subscription papers, to the proposed plan of procuring an accurate Map of New-Jersey, immediately after their appointment transmitted printed copies of the plan to various persons in the several counties of this state, and in the cities of New York and Philadelphia, and since that time, through the medium of the public prints, have requested the gentlemen entrusted with those papers, to return the number of subscribers by them respectively procured, to James Salter, Esq. at Trenton, on or before the 6th day of February last. The number of subscriptions received, not amounting to two thousand, the commissioners did not conceive themselves authorized to fix a day for the meeting of the company; nevertheless being of opinion from respectable information, that the actual subscriptions are nearly, if not fully, adequate to the complete organization of the company, if they could be ascertained by regular returns, and being convinced that a trifling degree of exertion, on the part of the persons holding the subscription lists, would enable them to carry the intention of the subscribers into effect, they have by the unanimous advice and consent of the subscribers, whom they have been able to consult, fixed on the 14th day of May next, being the 2d day of the sitting of the supreme court, for a meeting of the subscribers at 11 o'clock in the forenoon, at the State House in Trenton, for the purpose of electing five Trustees and a Treasurer, if the number of subscriptions should be sufficient, or in any event to determine on the measures necessary to secure the attainment of an object so useful to the state.

From the universal approbation exhibited by their fellow-citizens, at the commencement of this undertaking, it was to be expected that the subscriptions returned would have ensured its immediate execution, and the commissioners are pursuaded if proper attention is paid to the procuring of subscriptions, to their punctual return at the time fixed for the meeting, and to the attendance of the subscribers, either in person or by proxy, that no farther delay will take place in commencing the operations of the company, in time for their execution during the course of the ensuing summer.

WATER-OFFICE.

Centre Square, Febeuary 5, 1800.

IN compliance with the instructions of the Committee for watering the city, and with my own inclinations, every possible admittance and information has been given to those citizens who have visited the Works during their progress. The Engines are now arrived, and are immediately to be put up, and it is hoped that it will be thought reasonable and just, both to the Public, and to the Contractor for the Engines, that the workmen should not be interrupted. As a very few months will fully gratify the curiosity of the citizens, by shewing them the Engines in full operation, a temporary exclusion of all visitors from the Engine houses cannot appear improper.
